

BIOGRAPHY

Born & raised in a military family in Ft. Sill & Newport News, VA, iLL Chris picked up his early influences of 90's hip hop from his older brother. He moved to Las Vegas where he attended Jr High & High School before relocating to Seattle while serving Duty in the Air Force. iLL Chris kicked his music in to high-gear. Early on, people took notice of Chris' witty punchlines, notable features and strong hustle and he's since tour with notable acts as Lil Pump, Curren$y, Ski Mask The Slump God, SmokePurpp and more.

Chris has garnered impressive mentions from Billboard, HYPEBEAST Music, 88 Rising, Hot New Hip Hop, WSHH, XXL and more.. His music video for "Kill Shit" with Ski Mask The Slump God and Rob Banks has over 400,000 views to date. "Throw Dat Dope" has 500,000 plays on SoundCloud with over 3 million plays over a handful of songs and "iLL Like I'm Sick" has over 125,000 views on YouTube.

Chris most recently released his highly anticipated album while on the "Ski Meets World Tour". Rise of Sensei has already surpassed 350,000 streams.

A connoisseur in every sense of the word. Chris has made a name for himself and established sponsorships with worldwide brands such as Homme Femme LA, Chalkline, Alphabet Vodka and Ghost Supply. Chris has also styled the likes of SmokePurpp for fashion week and Ski Mask The Slump God on daily show attire. Don't let his fresh sounds and style fool you, iLL Chris is a veteran in the game. His many accolades and cosigns by big names are attributed to Chris' ability to maintain his own unique authenticity that very few in the game can.
